Sitting in the capital of the U.S. Beryl reflected on the nations represented at the 58th National Prayer Breakfast in Washington D.C. What has become an annual gathering of over 4000 people began with a President who realized the need of having a few trusted friends to meet & pray with as he led this great nation. Change the heart of a leader and you can change a nation. In this repeated event, relationships are forged & small groups patterned on Jesus, founded on love, accountability & lasting friendship across party lines are the nature of the seeds that grow across the world.
